

CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF APPLIED ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE

International Journal of Applied Accounting and Finance (IJAAF), a publication of The Modern Technology & Management Institute, Inc. (MTMI), a non-profit organization, invites submissions of high quality research papers in all areas of accounting and finance for its next volume. Possible topics for the next volume include, but are not limited to:

- Asset pricing: theory and evidence
- Empirical research on capital market anomalies
- Market based accounting research
- Earnings management
- Economic theories of accounting and accounting-based valuation models
- Empirical research on the valuation of equities and other securities
- Investment analysis and portfolio management
- Corporate financial communication and financial signaling
- Corporate financial decision making
- Corporate governance
- The structuring and effectiveness of financial contracts
- Banking
- Taxation
- Finance in emerging and less developed economies
- Social, ethical, and environmental measurement, reporting, and accountability
- Accounting practices for intellectual capital and other intangible assets
- Audit quality and auditor skills
- Audit committees and corporate governance in emerging and less developed economies
- Provision of non-audit services and impairments to auditor independence
- Budgeting
- Activity Based Costing
- Financial measurement and disclosure, and the quality of information reported
- Competitiveness of U.S. securities markets (e.g., vis-à-vis UK or other markets)
- International financial reporting
- Regulation of global securities markets

International Journal of Applied Accounting and Finance has the ISSN number 1937-9005 and is listed in both 10th Cabell's Directory and Ulrich's Periodicals Directory. Only original papers will be considered for publication, and all will be double blind refereed. Submitted papers should not be under review with any other journal and should follow the manuscript format requirements listed for papers at www.effectivemanagement.org. All papers should be submitted to Professor Charles Chekwa at cchekwa@troy.edu or chaschekwa@gmail.com